Do you find yourself saving up tasks, hoping that your family will have time in their schedules to help you out?

Do you find yourself frustrated and unable to get things done on your own on the computer or wondering who to call to help fix something in the house?

Do you wish you had someone to help you get things done who could respond to your calendar and timescale?

Helping Hands are here to assist with everything from ordering your shopping on the computer and booking home repair jobs, to arranging trips and holidays for you and your family. If it's on your home To-Do list, we will help you get it done.

Home Help Support for Senior Citizens

Our team are specially trained to provide tailored support for senior citizens and those with a registered disability.

Friendly Regular Visits

You will see the same person at each appointment (sickness and holidays allowing). We know how important a supportive relationship can be.

Reliable Expert Multitaskers

Focus your energy on what matters and let us take the strain of dealing with computer problems, booking tradesmen, ordering online shopping, filing, paperwork and more.

- Help from 5 hours a month
- A personal assistant who works with your schedule
- Potential to cover cost with Attendance Allowance
- Help with shopping, errands, paying bills, IT problems and more
- Reliable visits from your regular assistant
- All PAs have current DBS checks

Helping Hands PA Service

“Clare at Helping Hands has been really helpful in sorting out my emails and daily communications as well as running errands when we need her to. We couldn’t do without her now! We enjoy her company and would be lost without her!” R Seymour - Kingston

Helping Hands from One Stop Organisers

One Stop Organisers has been helping people from across the UK to tackle some of life’s challenges for over 15 years. Whether we’re helping a couple to downsize after 40 years in the same house, or supporting a busy company owner with their paperwork and filing, our goal is the same: we’re here to take the weight off of your shoulders.
